

Flora The Forest Fairy Audition Piece

Fairy

Hello Boys and Girls! I said hello Boys and Girls! My name is Flora, the Forest Fairy. I'm so glad you came to see us today. And you're just in time for our story, are we sitting comfortably? Then let us begin; for I'm going to tell you a tale of romance and adventure, of heroic deeds and derring-do, with just a little magic along the way. It's the story of... Robin and Marion, a Sherwood Tale!

Good King Richard of England went away to fight in the Crusades and put his Town Sheriffs in charge of running the country. Little did he know that the Sheriff at Nottingham town was the wickedest Sheriff in the kingdom! (Lights come up on Sheriff standing behind gauze SL.) He raised the poor people's taxes to take their money and starved them close to death, just so he could become the richest in the land.

Only one man stood in his way, a man who stood for truth and justice, a man as brave as the King himself; our hero Robin Hood! (SFX: RH fanfare. Lights come up on Robin standing behind gauze SR.) Robin took money from the rich and gave it back to the poor, to whom it really belonged. The Sheriff tried to catch him but Robin hid away in Sherwood Forest with his band of Merry Men. (Lights fade and Robin and Sheriff exit.) Robin's good deeds made the townsfolk happy and they'd sing and dance in the town square. Let's go there now and see them, welcome one and all, to Nottingham!
